

Labourer card renewal declaration form

The Labourer card is only for those carrying out Labouring duties on site and shows employers that the holder is not on a recognised trade related pathway.

From February 1st 2025 anyone wishing to renew their Labourer card must provide evidence they are employed as a Labourer.

Operatives who continue in a labouring role can renew their card for five years by providing evidence they are either currently employed or will be employed as a labourer. This can be done in one of the following ways:

- Completion of this form. Any incomplete forms will not be processed and could mean the application is rejected.
- A signed letter from an employer on company-headed paper confirming the individual is employed or will be employed in a labouring capacity.
- For those self-employed, a signed letter from a main contractor confirming the individual is employed or will be employed in a labouring capacity.

What is a Labouring role?

A construction labourer performs manual labour on construction sites to assist with the building, repairing and cleaning of structures and sites.

For more information on the definition of what is classed as a Labouring role, visit CSCS.uk.com/Labourer.

Please complete this form in full before uploading it during the application process. Incomplete forms will not be processed and could mean the application is rejected.
